OLD AUNT MARY'S.

Wasn't it pleasant, oh, brother mine, in those old days of the lost sunshine Of youth—when the Saturday's chores were through, And the "Sunday wood" in the kitchen, And we want visiting, "me and you," Out to Old Aunt Mary's?

It ail comes back clear today!
Though I am baid as you are gray—
Out by the barn lot and down the lane,
We patter along in the dust again,
As light as the tips of the drops of rain,
Out to Old Aunt Mary's!

We cross the pasture, and through the Where the old gray snag of the poplar stood, Where the hammering "red-heade" hopped awry,
And the buzzard "raised" in the clearing aky,
And lolled and circled as we went by,
Out to Old Aunt Mary's.

located on Muin street, and one good And to modern apartment of seven rooms, beas With And the more we ate was the more

And the old spring house in the green gloom
Of the willow trees—and the cooler Where the swinging shelves and the crocks were kept—
Where the cream in a golden languar

And oh, my brother, so far away.
This is to tell you she waits today
